Ranthambore

HOME OF THE BENGAL TIGER

Discover the Rajasthani countryside as you travel overland from Jaipur to Ranthambore National Park: a wilderness tucked between the rugged Aravalli and Vindhya hills, spanning 500 square miles of dense jungle, golden savanna, dramatic cliffs, and lotus-filled lakes with ancient ruins of palaces and temples. Once the hunting ground of royalty, the park was the first of nine to be designated a Tiger Reserve in the early 1970s. Today the park is considered the best spot to catch a glimpse of elusive Bengal tigers in the wild. It also provides a sanctuary for other wildlife including leopards, striped hyenas, sambar deer, chitals, nilgais, macaques, jackals, caracals, sloth bears, and hundreds of bird species. Pleasant weather and lush greenery following the monsoon season enrich your four guided game drives.

OBEROI VANYAVILAS WILDLIFE RESORT

Prepare to be spoiled at The Oberoi Vanyavilas Wildlife Resort, an intimate luxury tented camp located on the edge of the park, featuring beautiful tents decorated in nineteenth century campaign style.

Udaipur

VENICE OF THE EAST

We return to Jaipur and board our jet for the short flight to the picturesque city of Udaipur, nestled along the shores of Lake Pichola and framed by splendid views of the surrounding Aravalli Range. Long the capital of the royal family of Mewar, the Old City abounds with lavish palaces and lakeside temples. Wander the twisting streets and uncover the city's heart and heritage in its ornate architecture and intricate art. We'll enjoy an exclusive lake cruise at sunset and a private tour of the exquisite and imposing City Palace, constructed over a period of nearly four decades and comprising the largest palace complex in Rajasthan. Further afield, visit the Adinatha Temple at Ranakpur and hear insights into the Dharmic religion of Jain that originated on the Indian subcontinent.

TAJ LAKE PALACE

Stay at the Taj Lake Palace, a restored eighteenth-century royal palace in white marble, situated on Jag Niwas island, and seemingly floating in the midst of Lake Pichola. Rooms feature lavish décor, personalized butler service, and beautiful lake views.

Mahé

A TROPICAL ISLAND ESCAPE

Fly directly to Mahé, the largest of the 115 Seychelles islands, a remote archipelago suspended in the sparkling blue Indian Ocean. The island's quiet, white powdered beaches and striking granite rock formations give way to a mountainous interior, largely covered with dense cloud forest. Your stay here can be as full or as unstructured as you desire. Snorkeling and diving are exceptional, amid sculpted granite rocks ablaze with colorful corals and an array of marine life. Stroll along the resort's secluded beach and among tropical gardens, rejuvenate at the luxury spa, or simply indulge in downtime at your private villa with infinity pool, panoramic vistas, and dedicated host service.

ANANTARA MAIA SEYCHELLES VILLAS

Located on a private peninsula, Anantara Maia Seychelles Villas features 30 private villas positioned for maximum views and privacy. Each luxurious villa boasts an ocean-facing infinity pool and a sunken outdoor tub, with bespoke touches throughout.

Masai Mara

CLASSIC BIG FIVE SAFARI

Like traders of old, we follow the trade winds across the Indian Ocean to East Africa. Upon landing in Nairobi, a scenic flight by bush plane transports us to Africa's famed savanna, where a Maasai guide will join you for cocktails and describe the traditional practices of the Maasai people and their enduring relationship with the land and its wild inhabitants. For the following two days, relax into a schedule of morning and afternoon game drives in an area unrivaled for its constant flow of wildlife. Spot plains game like impalas, gazelles, topis, and warthogs, as well as lions, leopards, and cheetahs on the hunt. View the landscape from aloft on an optional hot air balloon ride or stretch your legs with an optional Maasai-guided walking safari for an insightful and close look at this complex ecosystem.

LITTLE GOVERNORS' CAMP

Nestled in a riverine forest, Little Governors' spacious safari tents are comfortably appointed with ensuite bathrooms and feature private decks overlooking a natural water hole teeming with wildlife.

Manda Island

LEGENDARY SWAHILI COAST

We journey to the much-storied Swahili Coast and our beach hideaway on a private island in the Lamu Archipelago. Visit Lamu Old Town, the oldest and best-preserved Swahili settlement in East Africa (and a UNESCO World Heritage Site) and browse the art galleries and boho boutiques of Shela, a chic contemporary hamlet. We spend a day exploring the archipelago on the majestic Tutsitiri dhow, a traditional sailing vessel that once plied the trade routes between Mombasa and the Middle East. And October to March is the optimal time to enjoy water sports such as kayaking, snorkeling, and stand-up paddle boarding as the Kaskazi trade winds deliver warm breezes and crystal-clear waters. On our final evening, we celebrate our journey together with a farewell dinner under the stars.

MANDA BAY

A tranquil barefoot hideaway, Manda Bay offers breezy rooms with palm thatch roofs and access to secluded, sandy beaches. The reef-protected waters are ideal for water activities, and the surrounding woodland provides a haven for birds, as well as mongooses, bush bucks and buffalos.

Dubai

A FINAL NIGHT IN DUBAI
